

Make your maple

Now you've learnt all about Canadian maple syrup's journey from tree to bottle, it's time to come up with your own product.

Imagine you're a maple producer, setting up your very first sugar shack deep in the forests of Canada. Use the space on the right to design your bottle and describe what it tastes like.

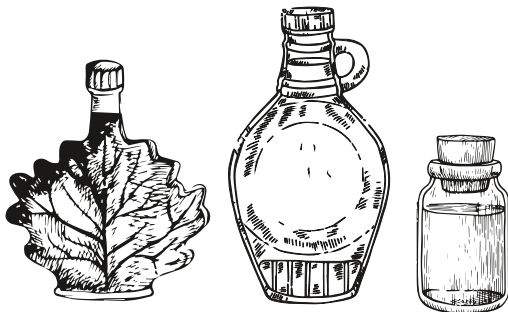

CREATE YOUR BOTTLE AND DESIGN YOUR PRODUCT LABEL

What do you want your bottle to look like?

How will you make it stand out from all the other brands on the shelf?

What is the brand name?

Will you include a logo design?

Here's some examples to help you draw your own bottle shape.

Now you've drawn a great bottle shape, you can design the label.

PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

How are you going to make sure shoppers buy your syrup? Don't forget to think about which grade your maple syrup will be. How do you want it to taste? What do you want it to be used for?

Use the space on the right to make notes then add to your label.
